

Notes of Meeting of the Environmental Caucus of the Democratic Party of Hawaii at 404 Ward Avenue January 12, 2014

Present: Charley, Mary, Lisa, Juanita

Report from Ambercrombie meeting:

he had not foreseen that the PLDC issue was going to blow up combat invasive sp. by increasing in-field manpower and funding for inspectors utility is going to have to change

Big industry material recycling on Maui

Jessie Souki is now having green light to make recommendations on policy energy related and climate change related

Discussion about potential caucus activities precinct

We are encouraging all our members to consider becoming precinct captains in their district. A training is being held at Ambercrombie headquarter Ward Warehouses on Feb 22, 2014 at 10 am - 2pm. Do not panic if you cannot make the training there are also people willing to help you along.

Feb 26 special general membership meeting about the process to become precinct captain short list of candidates who are running to invite to talk to our caucus about

- environmental issue

March 26

chair dept of ag. Scott Enright and Gary Hooser, council member of Kauai: discussion on pesticides (Jessica Wooley, nishihara)

Musicians union hall ; church of crossroads, Lunalilo elem; Washington Intermediate, KCC

TNC traditional and customary practices